

Hold my heart

Sitting in my private room
Trying to find my answers soon
I never felt like this before tonight

Trying to find my happiness
Looking down on broken glass
I never felt like this before tonight

Like a broken arrow
Like a poisoned bird
Like a useless word

Hold my heart
Hold my heart
Hold my heart my broken heart tonight

Even if you are okay
There is something more I like to say
I never thought that everything was wrong

Trying to find my happiness
Looking down on broken glass
I never felt like this before tonight

Like a broken arrow
Like a poisoned bird
Like a useless word

Hold my heart
Hold my heart
Hold my heart my broken heart tonight

Hold my heart
Hold my heart
Hold my heart my broken heart tonight
