

If you could find a way

To live your life an say
That every minute of your life is just the perfekt time

if every broken heart
is just a perfekt start to live a life of dreams
that must be paradize

sometimes you loose sometimes it's not the truth you find but it's all in your mind sometimes it's black sometimes it's white but all you find is a perfekt grey

If you could find a way
To live your life an say

sometimes you're blind sometimes you didn't see what's real but it is what you feel so what behind your sight what's behind your mask you hide what do you find?

If you could find a way
To live your life an say
